

A Week is Long Time in Politics

Compass Series Programme

Monday 5 March 2012

8.30am Compass Series Registration and Welcome Tea & Coffee

9.00am Welcome

9.30am Navigating the Multigenerational Workplace

Amanda Daly, HR Manager, Redland City Council

As the workplace becomes more demanding and complex, the different needs and priorities of officers of different generations can create conflict and frustration. Amanda will examine these differences and provide some practical means of overcoming the challenges to create effective relationships.

10.15am On the Front Foot – Getting proactive about misconduct

Dr Paul Collings, Crime and Misconduct Commission

Nothing ever stays the same – election results, legislative reforms, shifts in social values, climate change, economic chaos, natural disasters.

To fulfill our duty to the communities we serve, we have to keep a step ahead of all the risks that come with these changes. This session examines the major misconduct risks and proposes some strategies for heading them off before they become embarrassments or disasters.

11.00am Morning Tea

11.30am The Political Dimension

John Oberhardt, Logan City Council

This workshop will explore the challenges and pitfalls of managing the political dimension of local government. What works and what doesn't and how you can ensure you build positive and constructive relationships with elected members. Facilitated by John Oberhardt, the workshop will be relevant regardless of your role in local government.

12.45pm Lunch

1.30pm The LG Worm

Workshop

- How does local government rate as an employer?
- Does local government achieve great outcomes for the community?
- Is local government looking for future communities?
- Is governance practice in local government sound?

Join us to examine the big questions of local government – what are we doing well and how could we do better?

2:45pm SEQ Branch AGM

All delegates are invited to join members for the South East Queensland Branch Annual General Meeting.

3.30pm Afternoon Tea

4.00pm Leadership and Teams

Jon Gibbons, Whitsunday Regional Council

This presentation will consider the practical projects that managers can implement in their workplaces to build ownership and responsible, motivated and dedicated employees. Using a range of examples, this hands-on session will explore what staff want from work and how to provide the opportunities to attain what they require.

6.00pm Compass Series Dinner

Tuesday 6 March 2012

9.00am The Collaboration Showcase

This showcase session will feature a series of speed shots – short & snappy presentations by SEQ Councils on local initiatives demonstrating effective, cutting-edge collaboration.

Delegates will then have the opportunity to talk to the presenters in a networking session.

10.45am Morning Tea

11.15am Putting the P into Policy Development

With resources stretched and time limited, community input is easy to neglect when it comes to policy development. This session will examine the benefits of putting people back into your policy development processes and ensuring the community can input effectively.

12.00pm Legal Potpourri

Tim Fynes-Clinton, King and Company

King and Company will outline the latest legal precedents in local government and highlight areas for councils to be careful of, as well as potential future issues.

12.45pm Lunch

1.30pm Thinking Strategically in a World of Change

Dr Irena Yashin-Shaw

Speaker, innovator, facilitator, educator, consultant, Dr Irena Yashin-Shaw PhD, MEd, BA, is adept at helping people to access, leverage, transform and synergise their knowledge, skills and experience. In other words ... get the most mileage out of their knowledge resources. This session will help you understand the global trends that require us to maintain a mindset of innovation and how we can meet that challenge on a day to day basis.
