Officers from local government who are working within the CQ Branch.

This forum is designed as an informative workshop allowing delegates to meet with other like-minded professionals to network, collaborate and share experiences and ideas.

The 2021 CQ Forum will explore the challenges and opportunities facing the region, showcase innovative initiatives being undertaken by councils and provide an informative update from the Department of State Development, Infrastructure, Local Government and Planning.

The Forum is for officers at Manager level and below and is a great opportunity to build knowledge, gather ideas and to create networks with neighbours facing similar challenges.

Keynote Presenter: Wendy Dean

Wendy Dean has always been independent; growing up in Central Queensland, attending boarding school at 11 and joining the Airforce at 17. Her positive nature and attitude saw her not only survive but thrive after beating Breast Cancer in 2015, 2017 and 2018.

Wendy has a natural love of storytelling. Motivating and connecting with others by sharing her varied stories of survival and resilience.

Living fearlessly by the words 'Wake up, Get up' Wendy is a relatable single mum of two who easily engages with people from all walks of life. Proactive and always looking for that silver lining her positive outlook in the face of adversity shows her amazing character and resilience.

We look forward to seeing you at the Networking function for the announcement of the Rural Management Challenge winner!
