Linda Cardew joined the Board of LGMA Queensland as the Director North Queensland in 2016. She has been appointed as CEO to Cook Shire Council and was previously the CEO of Douglas Shire Council from its de-amalgamation in early 2014. Linda has held senior positions in local government in Queensland and NSW for almost 20 years and is highly motivated to support the development of contemporary and innovative councils, particularly in rural and remote areas. In 2016 Linda was awarded the Qld Regional Winner (Cairns) of the AIM Excellence in Leadership Awards.
