Susan joined the Board of LGMA Queensland in 2013 and held the role of President from 2017 – 2019.

Prior to commencing her local government career in 1996, Susan had 15 years working at an executive level in the private sector and 5 years as a Queensland Police Officer.

She joined the Board of LGMA in September 2013. Employed at South Burnett Regional Council, Susan previously worked at Blackall-Tambo Regional Council; 7 years in the administration and finance department, 5 years as Executive Assistant to the Chief Executive Officer and Mayor, 5 years as Manager of Corporate Services. Susan has a great deal of respect for both past and current LGMA Qld board members and their accomplishment in promoting this peak professional body to be the leader in excellence that it is.
