Programme Time Commitment

In addition to the scheduled sessions of the Programme, participants will need to contribute additional time in developing and implementing a workplace project (2 page report) in line with the learning outcomes of the Programme. Participants will also need to schedule the one-hour coaching session with at least one being face-to-face with the coach. To meet this requirement, the participant may need to schedule travel to include a coaching session on the day before or after a session of the Programme.

These time commitments do not include incidental requirements, such as travel considerations which will vary for every participant. Please note that it may be necessary to travel during personal or weekend time.

Councils, and in particular direct managers, need to be supportive of the overall time commitment of the Programme.

Nominee Acceptance

- I am aware of the time and travel commitments required to participate in this Programme.
- I am aware that all six days and one coaching session are mandatory and that I will need to contribute additional time outside work hours for travel and in preparation for workshop and coaching sessions.
- I am aware that a 2-page report (based on a workplace project) is required on day 6.
- I am aware that a Certificate of Completion will only be issued on completion of 6 workshop days, 1 coaching sessions and the final report.
- I give my permission for photographs that are taken throughout the duration of the Programme to be used in advertising future programmes, in PowerPoint presentations on the Ignite Programme and any other use that LGMA Queensland deems appropriate.
