3. NOMINEE ACCEPTANCE

Programme Time Commitment

- Attendance is mandatory for all sessions and workshops (10 in total)
- A commitment of your own time for meeting and working on the workshops and project report
- Travel time

For past participants, this additional time requirement has been up to an additional 1-2 days per month over the duration of the programme. Please note that it may be necessary for travel during personal or weekend time for rural/remote locations. Councils, and in particular direct managers, should be supportive of the overall time commitment of the programme.

Nominee Acceptance

I am aware of the time and travel commitments required to participate in this programme and will make every endeavour to attend all 10 sessions. I am aware that I will need to contribute additional time outside work hours for travel and to contribute to the workshops and group report.
